

Am I Losing You?

Can you hear me?

I just think that when we thought about how to even start even to be more than what we had been to.

Do you understand?

Before we were trying once at last to be figured by the time
that time was coming to them.

Are you with me here?

And I just don't ever figure to say that I haven't said what I figured out that now it loved to be there.

How is this not clear?

We should have been with that other that we decided ever to become from our further selves.

Well? Well??
